SEND IN SOCIAL NEWS.

The Capital Journal is always glad to print social news from outside of Salem, and will appreciate anything of this kind sent in over the telephone or by mail. In sending in news the writers' name should always be signed, not for publication, but as a guarantee that the matter is reliable. We do not print anything sent in unless we know the author of it.

Upon the invitation of Mrs. W. B. Clark, the ladies of the Pringle and Pleasant Point Social club, with their husbands, surprised Mr. Clark Thursday evening at his home in the Pringle neighborhood, where his 65th birthday was celebrated amid beautiful floral surroundings, with games and music. Mr. Clark has been a resident of Oregon since 178, coming from Michigan. Most of the years have been spent in the Pringle district on his splendid farm. Mrs. Clark was Miss Emma Brown. They have two sons and one grandson. The following friends were present: Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fromm, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Coburn, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Rest, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Coates, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Vanderbilt, Mrs. C. H. Cannon, Mrs. Will Robins, Mrs. N. M. Ryal, Mrs. Wm. Robins, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Clark, and Misses Lena Mize, Lita Waters, Edna Cannon, Grace Robertson, Harriet Coburn, and Messrs. Percy Robins and Frank Clark.

Entertainment of a most delightful nature has filled to capacity the stay of Mrs. William P. Lord and Miss Elizabeth Lord, in Eugene. The following society items taken from the Eugene Guard of yesterday are of interest:

Senator and Mrs. W. W. Calkins are planning to entertain with a dinner tomorrow afternoon for Mrs. William Lord and Miss Elizabeth Lord, of Salem.

Mrs. William P. Osborn entertained the following guests at luncheon Friday afternoon in the Osborn hotel: Mrs. William Lord and Miss Elizabeth Lord, of Salem; Mrs. David Auld and Mrs. Lillian R. Seaton.

Among the many entertainments given for Mrs. William Lord and Miss Elizabeth Lord, of Salem, during the week was an auction bridge party given Friday afternoon by Mrs. Ralph S. Hamilton and Mrs. Earle Stanley Smith in the home of the former on Thirteenth avenue. A pretty suggestion of the spring season was given to the reception rooms by quantities of apple blossoms arranged in every available place. Miss Pauline Potter and Miss Louise Allen assisted the hostesses throughout the afternoon. At the close of the game the souvenir for the highest score was bestowed upon Mrs. E. O. Potter and the guest prize upon Mrs. Earl. Those present were: Mrs. Lord, Miss Lord, Mrs. David Auld, Mrs. Lillian R. Seaton, Mrs. M. P. Griggs, Mrs. C. D. Rorer, Mrs. Alexander Martin, Mrs. R. B. Russell, Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Mrs. R. W. Collins, Mrs. J. P. McDonald, Mrs. C. A. Burden, Mrs. R. W. Martin, Mrs. E. J. Finerman, Mrs. Paul Merrill, Mrs. E. O. Potter, Mrs. S. D. Allee and Mrs. Warren Smith.

Other affairs given in their honor were an informal musicale given by Miss Mary De Bar and Miss Winifred Forbes. In the course of the evening a delightful musical program was rendered by Mrs. E. G. Thacher, Mrs. Winifred Forbes and Mrs. Harry Devereaux.

Dr. and Mrs. Warren D. Smith gave a dinner in honor of Mrs. William Lord and Miss Elizabeth Lord, of Salem. Places were arranged for Dr. and Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Lord, Miss Lord, Mr. and Mrs. David Auld, Mrs. Lillian R. Seaton and Mrs. Lillian Auld.

A golfing party was formed Thursday afternoon by Miss Pauline Potter in honor of Mrs. Lord, of Salem. After spending several hours on the Country club links, the party was joined by additional guests and a picnic dinner was given in the club house by Mrs. David Auld, assisted by Miss Potter, in honor of Mrs. Lord and her mother, Mrs. William Lord.

Another charming attention for them was the bridge luncheon given by Mrs. C. D. Rorer.

Miss A. Beatrice Chaucer, of River-ton, Ore., a 1912 graduate of Haddon high school, has been chosen queen for the May day normal school exercises on the campus May 1. The maids of honor are: Merle Stearns, Oris Steinberg, Florence Fieldhouse, Jeanne Anderson, Gladys Pearson, Helen Hall, Ruby Kasmussen and Aileen Langham.

Guests who were for the most part members of the local newspaper fraternity gathered last night in response to informal invitations at the home of Miss Elizabeth Schultz, a former writer on the Salem papers, who has been editing the social columns of the morning paper the past two weeks during the absence of Miss Florence E. Nichols. Miss Schultz entertained for Mrs. Alva N. David, of Atlanta, Georgia, who was at one time society editor of the Capital Journal, and who is passing several months in Salem the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. McIntire. Many of those present were former business associates of Mrs. David, making the occasion especially pleasant. Those hidden were: Colonel and Mrs. John H. Cradlebaugh, Mr. and Mrs.

A. H. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Knowland, Mrs. Peterson, Miss Minnie Downing, Miss Mollie Runcorn, Miss May Higbee, Ivan Martin, George Prichard, Richard Hanson and Sidney Jones.

The younger Sunday school classes of the Leslie Methodist church enjoyed a happy out-of-doors party Saturday afternoon on the grounds surrounding the church. Mrs. J. B. Ulrich and Miss Gladys Carson, teachers of the two classes, participating, supervising the merry-making. About 25 were present.

Admirers of the remarkable ability of Mrs. Warren J. Hunt as a moving picture pianist are delighted to learn that she is to return to Salem shortly, and it is hoped that the patrons of the local picture house will again have the privilege of hearing her. For the past eight months at Portland's foremost picture theater, the National.

The marriage of Mrs. Estella R. Hu-llets to B. J. Beatty, of Seattle, was solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Patterson, 1523 South Cottage street, Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock, only relatives and immediate friends being present. The couple left this morning for Seattle, where they will reside.

The Jacob Kamms, of Portland, motored up to pass the week-end with the W. Connel Dyers.

A small son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Thielens yesterday. The Thielens have two other beautiful children, Nancy and Henry Wesley.

Mrs. W. H. Cook left yesterday for Sweet Home, where she will pass a week or 10 days with her daughter, Mrs. Ivan Bellinger (Miss Lola Belle Cook).

Violin pupils of Miss Joy Turner, of the college of music, were presented in private recital last Wednesday evening. Sketches of the composers and an analysis of different parts of the music preceded the program, making the recitals, which were largely made up of Bach and Beethoven compositions, especially interesting. Those appearing were: Pearl Osterman, Marion Emmons, Bessie Schrank, Maggie Huffman, Mary Glyde, Pearl George, Glenda Clapper, Gladys Gardner, William Sherwood, Leona Finney, Melbourne Radcliff.

Miss Margaret Logge entertained a group of young folk at the E. A. Leage home Friday night for Miss Jeannette Meredith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Meredith, who are leaving May 1st for North Yakima to make their home. The guests numbered for the most part members of the recently organized Gamma Phi society, of which Miss Meredith is a member. They were: Misses Dorris Churchill, Lucille Jones, Cora Mortensen, Miriam Steeves, Marjorie Brown, Althea Esch, Messrs. George Weller, Wolcott Buren, Linus Simpson, Tillman Perizzo, Bryanman Boise, Charles Huggins and Kenneth Leage. Another complimentary affair for Miss Meredith was the evening affair, for which Miss Lucille Jones was hostess at her home, 835 D street, her guests being the Nika Klakhanie group of Camp Fire girls. Pink peonies and spring foliage decorated the home most effectively. The guests were: Misses Luella Patton, Valerie Briggs, Dorothy Buckner, Rena Fox, Lucile Jones, Marie Briggs, Margaret Logge, Lucille De Witt, Margaret Goodin, Lucille Croisan, Jeannette Meredith, Gladys Nichols, Eyn Randall, Mrs. Geo. P. Fox and Miss Aiken.

Friday night the girls of Lausanne hall entertained a number of the university men at the dormitory. About 50 were present. The guests were entertained with music during the early part of the evening. Miss Luella Buell gave a reading and Mrs. Whitney an instrumental solo. Mrs. Whitney is a sister of Miss Todd, the pre-reptress of Lausanne, last night's affair being given in her honor. She left for her home in Tacoma Saturday. The amusement for the evening consisted in dividing the company into four groups, each of which was given the duty of presenting some "stunt." Those presented were: A score from a chapel exercise; the domestic duties of a Lausanne hall kitchen; the famous university orchestra with a variety of instruments, ranging from strings to singing. The "Buddy Barber Shop" was another act which was extremely humorous as presented by a number of girls. Guessing games was the next order of events. All the answers were names of some individual who attended school and many of the questions were exceedingly clever. Following this several of the girls assisted Miss Todd with serving, after which college songs were sung until the conventional hour of leave-taking.

A most pleasing recital was given by the violin pupils of William Wallace Graham, in the First Christian church, Saturday evening, Mrs. Frank C. Fickley playing an excellent piano accompaniment for all the numbers. All of the numbers were given accurately, meeting an appreciative response from the audience. Miss Naomi Scott, of Dallas, who was scheduled to take part, was unable to appear. Another out-of-town pupil, Miss Elizabeth Levy, of Silverton, delighted with her playing, being one of the most advanced students. Miss Mary Schultz gave a particularly brilliant selection, appearing in the place of honor on the program. Others who gave numbers were: Miss Mary Schoettle, Miss Hazel McGillchrist, Gene Barnes, Mrs. P. F. Hazen, Frank Frickey and Lorenzo Simpson.

Lillian Steeves entertained with a stag dinner party Friday evening, laying covers for Karl Chapler, Alpheus Gillette, Earl Flagel, Ronald Teeters, Wallace Adams.

The "Sarasawva" group of Camp Fire girls, of which Mrs. Mark Elliott is guardian, enjoyed an extended hike Saturday afternoon, stopping near Kingswood park for a picnic lunch. Those who enjoyed the trip were: Gertrude Tucker, Winifred Reinhardt, June McMillen, Bessie Bratty, Grace Jasper, Bernice Burn, Dorothy Cole, Marion Barlow, Amber Hitebrook and Catherine Pemberton.

FOR SPRING WEAR

Very smart is the frock pictured here. The skirt is attached to the blouse below the hips, and a double cord confines the blouse at the waist line. A vestee of art velvet is combined with another vest and collar of white satin. Buttons ornament the front of the blouse, also the sleeve cuffs.

NEW STUDENT CAMPAIGN BEING PUSHED FORWARD

Student Body Backs Plan With Whole Heart—Hoped to Double Enrollment For Next Year.

The campaign for new students at Willamette, advocated and launched by Dean Alden a few weeks ago, and endorsed by Pres. C. G. Doney while here, is being pushed forward with a will by all the students. The proposed plan as given out by Dean Alden was: All the names of high school graduates throughout the state, over two thousand in number, have been collected by the dean; these names have been typewritten in groups of ten and handed to the students, each student is then requested to write an interesting letter to each of the ten persons whose names he has. In the letter he is to set forth the reasons why prospective students should consider Willamette as the college which he or she, as the case may be, should attend; any information which these prospective students may desire will be cheerfully given by the students who have written the letters. An interesting fact about this campaign is that the student body as a whole was unanimous in favor of this plan. This shows that Willamette students have confidence in their school and are working in unified action to push Willamette to the front during the coming year.

This systematic campaign for students, it is hoped, will double the enrollment at Willamette for the coming year, and hasten the time when promised new buildings will become a reality. Dr. Doney, who is highly enthusiastic in promoting such work will find the students eager and willing to co-operate with him.

P. S. H. Pot Of Tribulation Boils Over

Seattle, Wash., April 19.—The seething pot of tribulation in which officers, committees and members of Puget Sound Harbor of the American Association of Masters, Mates and Pilots have been stewing for the past six months, boiled over in Superior court today. Judge R. B. Albertson has cited S. A. Chapin, acting president and P. Mullen, acting treasurer, together with the acting executive committee composed of H. B. Jones, H. M. Roberg and H. S. Smith to appear before him Thursday and show cause why they should yield their offices to persons recently appointed to succeed them by the national association of the organization. Charges of collusion and graft are made in a complaint filed today by H. B. Joyce and E. C. Loomis, members of Puget Sound harbor, who claim that, after Chapin and Mullen were officially tried and "fired" from their respective offices by the national association, they continued to usurp their former positions and are dominating the meetings of the local organization.

ing covers for Karl Chapler, Alpheus Gillette, Earl Flagel, Ronald Teeters, Wallace Adams.

The "Sarasawva" group of Camp Fire girls, of which Mrs. Mark Elliott is guardian, enjoyed an extended hike Saturday afternoon, stopping near Kingswood park for a picnic lunch. ## POPULAR BUSINESS AND LODGE MAN OF SALEM FOUND DEAD

Joseph Harris, Prominent Hop Dealer, Succumbs To Attack of Heart Failure

Joseph Harris, one of the most prominent and popular hop dealers, lodge and club men in Salem and the state of Oregon, was found dead in his office in the Salem Bank of Commerce building shortly after 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon, by Louis Lachmund, a fellow hop dealer and close personal friend. Drs. Robertson and H. E. Clay, who were called in and examined the body pronounced the cause as heart failure and stated that he had been dead about two hours. Funeral services will be conducted at the Elks hall at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon under the auspices of Salem lodge 336, B. P. O. E., and interment will be had in the mausoleum at the Odd Fellows cemetery.

Joseph Harris was about 38 years of age and in his prime. Physically he was an almost perfect specimen of manhood and a trained athlete. He had never complained of any illness in his life, so far as his most intimate friends can remember, and his sudden demise comes as a distinct shock, not only to his beloved wife, who is prostrated with grief over his unexpected taking away, but to his partner in business, Harry A. Talbot and all of his friends and acquaintances. He was always of a cheerful and optimistic disposition, charitable to a fault, and made friends with all whom he came in contact in a business and social way.

Was Popular Resident. He was one of the most popular men of his profession and in all of his dealings with his fellow hop dealers and the hop growers and was the soul of honor and integrity. He was a member of the Salem lodge of Elks and a 32nd degree Mason and was very popular in both fraternities. He has been identified with the hop business ever since he was 11 years of age, having entered the employ of the well known firm of Benjamin Schwartz & Sons, of New York, as office boy at that age and worked up to the most valuable employee on the staff of that firm. He came to Salem about 15 years ago and opened an agency for that company. A few years later he launched out in business for himself but maintained the purchasing agency for Benjamin Schwartz & Sons and two other New York and London factors. He was very successful in business, and by leading a life of thrift and frugality, had accumulated a comfortable fortune.

So far as is known the last person who saw him alive was Louis Lachmund, who talked with him upon the street after 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon, when he went directly to his office. He also conversed with his partner, H. A. Talbot, over the telephone about 1:30. When Mr. Lachmund returned from his Mission Bottom ranch he went up to his office and dropped into Mr. Harris' office, as was his custom, for a little chat. Mr. Harris had the habit of taking an afternoon nap and when Mr. Lachmund found him lying upon the couch, thought nothing of it. But when he spoke to him and shook him and he made no reply, he made a closer examination and found that he was dead. He immediately summoned Dr. C. H. Robertson who said that life had been extinct about two hours. That was after 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Deceased was a native of New York. He is survived by a bereaved wife and two children, Jesse, aged 11, and Goldie, aged 2, and a mother and sister in New York City.

"DAMAGED GOODS" IS LECTURER'S SUBJECT

Story of Play Discusses Candidly Phase of Social Evil—Prohibited in France and England.

"Damaged Goods" was the subject of a lecture last evening by Prof. W. MacMurray at the Unitarian church. This is the French play which discussed so candidly one phase of the social evil that its production was prohibited in France and England. However it has been presented in all the larger cities of this country including Portland, where it was given, two weeks ago. It has also been discussed from the platform and pulpit, which all goes to show that the Americans are willing to face some conditions squarely, discuss them, and profit thereby.

Professor MacMurray is an interesting speaker and held the closest attention of the audience. Before the address, the Rev. R. F. Tischer, pastor of the church, stated that the meetings being held at the Unitarian church Sunday evenings were public gatherings and not religious services. Just before the close of the meeting, he recommended that every woman in the audience endeavor to see "Everywoman" at the opera house next Saturday evening, and that every man do likewise. He stated that the play was not only entertaining, but taught a great moral lesson.

QUICKLY STOPS HEAD COLDS AND SNUFFLES

Catarhal Germs Cause of Most Colds. New Germicidal Air Treatment Best Remedy For These Common Ailments.

Reliable authorities say that upwards of 90 per cent of the so-called colds in the head and throat are in reality dangerous indications of the presence of acute catarrh. When you hear a person sneeze or cough it's almost certain they are throwing catarrhal germs into the air for some other person to breathe and it's just as certain that the person breathing these germs will soon have catarrh or a catarrhal cold. The time to make these germs harmless and drive out your catarrhal cold is the very instant you feel a desire to sneeze or cough, or start to snuffle and wipe your nose every few minutes.

The quickest and surest way to stop a head cold and drive catarrhal germs out of your system is to pour a few drops of the oil of Hyomei (pronounced High-mee), into one of the Hyomei inhalant devices which comes with each large package and place the inhaler between your lips and breathe the germicidal and pleasant smelling air into your nose, throat and lungs. This air utterly destroys all catarrhal germ life, quickly opens the closed air passages, makes breathing easy, clears your stuffed up head, cleans out your throat and ends your snuffling and nose blowing. There is no need of a quacker or more satisfactory way of healing up a cold, even after it is well settled, and a few weeks use will do away with all danger of chronic catarrh. Sold by druggists everywhere, including Daniel J. Fry who agrees to return the full purchase price to any who use it and are not satisfied. In buying Hyomei for the first time be very sure to get the large size which contains the inhaler as this is very essential for best results.

PACIFIC HIGHWAY WORK.

Both the city of Aurora and the county have been improving the Pacific highway through the city and south of it the past week. Hundreds of loads of gravel have been taken from the bed of the river and spread 10 inches deep and nine feet wide upon the highway, in touch in the center of the road. This is put on wet and when it packs will make an excellent roadway.

The gravel is being taken from Pudding river by means of a powerful donkey engine, cables and a bottomless scraper. It is hauled up an incline and dumped into bunkers from which it can be rapidly loaded into wagons. About a yard of gravel is taken from the river every five minutes, or about 125 yards per day. M. E. Phillips having the contract to furnish Marion county a minimum of 2000 yards at 70 cents per yard. All over 2000 yards he furnishes at 50 cents per yard.

The city will also take from 250 to 300 yards. Clackamas county may secure some of its supply from the Pudding river.—Aurora Observer.

"How shall I dress tomorrow?" is the all important question that fills the mind of a woman the first time she goes to bed in a sleeping car. And no wonder!

RELIGION VS. CHRISTIANITY.

By John B. Polk.

If you wish to know all about religion, all you have to do is to go out on the street corner and spring the subject. You will attract more people who can tell all about the only kind of religion that a meat skin would attract flies. Solomon with all his wisdom cannot cope with some of these modern sages, great questions such as, Man's origin, destiny, the human soul, who is God, immortality, etc., is as freely handled as the road question, or who hit Billy Patterson, questions that has puzzled the greatest minds that now live or have lived in the last five thousand years is exceedingly easy for some of our wise people. In a recent discussion of this kind in Hood River, one of our most noted infidels (whatever that means) gave the crowd to understand that he had no use for the bible, as it was a fine fabrication, gotten up by a lot of grafters, etc., and that Christianity was entirely worthless. I asked this man to define his doctrine or otherwise tell us what he believed; he did so, quoting the book of Samuel as authority. Now what do you know about that kind of a position. There are many kinds of religion, but only one kind of Christianity. It is the religion which is doing the fighting among one another. Christians never fight, they know how to "resist not evil but overcome it with good."

The human race is seeking a religion that will save us in our sins, instead of from our sins, and they think have found it in ritualism and formalities. They expect to be saved for their belief instead of their good works or pure heart. It is not what I believe, but what I am that counts in my religion. I think the great teacher Christ clearly defined the true religion when he told a certain man in answer to his question, "What shall I do to inherit eternal life?" "Thou should love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, mind, soul, and strength, and thy neighbor as thyself." This is one of the grandest statements ever uttered by man or angel, and yet it comes from the Bible. When the searchlight of this great truth is turned on the street corner sages with their dogmas, disciplines and doctrines they usually think of something needing their attention elsewhere, but they cannot stand strong doctrine, but they go off after fables, and heap to themselves, teachers with lying ears, for the children of this world are wiser in his generation than the children of light.

BUYS CATERPILLAR TRACTOR.

Hugo Muecke received an 18-horse-power Midget caterpillar tractor Thursday for use on the Muecke ranch north of town. The caterpillar was unloaded here and ran out to the farm by an expert sent out from the Portland branch of the Holt Mfg. Co. of Oakland, Cal.

The Midget will pull two plows in any soil, three in ordinary soil and even four in very light soil. Mr. Muecke intends to use it on bottom lands though it can be used for hop yard plowing. The tractor is less than 6 feet wide and can easily pass between the hop rows. The Midget costs $1600. It does the work of six horses. Sam Brown at Gervais has just purchased one of the same size and make, which he will use in his 80-acre logan berry fields.—Aurora Observer.

County Cannot Pay Man Goes To Jail

Seattle, Wash., April 18.—J. Kress, who is cutting a home out of the wilderness near South Bend, for a wife and family, has gone to jail to cause King county to pay its bills. The last legislature is to blame.

Kress carried his complaint to Justice Gordon's court today to compel Jailer Hailey and asked to be let out, after he had gone to the county auditor and inquired whether the county could pay him what is due. He was told that the county was not.

Kress makes a little money doing the winter by hunting elk and deer, which the law offers a bounty of $100 each.

He provides meat for his family and his rifle. Last winter, after killing deer, he "jerked" part of the meat for future use.

A game warden found some of the "jerked" meat in Kress' cabin. The law says no person may have deer meat in his possession during the closed season. Kress was arrested.

He brought along a letter threatening to claim the bounty on his first.

Judge Gordon found him guilty and fined him $15, exactly the amount offered for the bounty on bobcats. But the last legislature, along with a lot of other sins of omission, failed to replenish the bounty fund for the county and Kress is in jail in consequence.
